

J.T Parnell, MS

Director of Service Operations

11+ YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

J.T offers a rich background in the Safety, Health & Environmental (SH&E) fields as both a manager and safety professional. Before coming to Boretti, Inc., J.T worked as the Director of Safety & Health for an industry-leading specialty trade subcontractor where he created and executed a comprehensive occupational safety and health program for all the corporate and company projects. With Boretti, Inc., J.T spent 5 years as an SH&E Professional where he evaluated client organizational needs, isolated areas for improvement, and implemented long-term service plans to assist clients in reaching their goals.

As the Boretti, Inc. Director of Operations, J.T uses his experience to successfully analyze operations, increase efficiency, and create, improve, and implement strategies to meet distinctive business goals of Boretti, Inc. clients. J.T has also presented and trained on topics ranging from Fall Protection and Confined Spaces, to Accident Investigation and the business value of safety. J.T has presented for numerous client businesses and entities such as ASSP, AgSafe, and the Central California Builder's Exchange.
