

Martha Moore-Kazarian

Senior SH&E Professional – Client Services

EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining the Boretti team, Martha gained her experience in Occupational Safety and Health working with companies in the Agricultural, Marketing, and Insurance fields. As a Risk and Compliance Manager for both Hancock Farmland Services and RPC Packing, Inc., Martha successfully designed and implemented Occupational Safety and Food Safety programs while maintaining FDA, DOL, OSHA, EPA, CDPR, USDA, and CDFA compliance in the Large-Scale Farming, Food Defense, Recall, and Produce Safety areas.

As a former Operations and Safety Manager for Moore Agricultural Products Company, Inc., Martha acquired an extensive knowledge of chemicals and fertilizers while she developed corrective action plans, conducted regular audits, designed plant flowcharts, shaped performance assessment protocols, and created inspection schedules. She additionally worked for California Ammonia and Occidental Chemical as a Laboratory Technician.

Now, as our Senior Safety, Health & Environmental (SH&E) Professional of Client Services at Boretti, Inc., with a newly acquired Responsible Ag Auditor Certification, Martha utilizes her broad knowledge base of Occupational Safety to continue to excel in bringing clients above and beyond compliance.
